

The 2009 Other Voices Lecture Series presents

March
9

Professor

*Genaro
Padilla*

Genaro Padilla is one of the leading scholars of Mexican-American literature in the United States, and has been on faculty in the English Department at U.C. Berkeley since 1987. As a member of the faculty, he has received numerous awards including the Premio Critical Nueva Fourth Annual Award for Excellence in Literary Scholarship from the University of New Mexico, a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship, a University of California President's Research Fellowship in the Humanities, William Kimball Rice Fellowship at Stanford University Humanities Center and a President's Fellowship at the University of Utah. Professor Padilla has authored many articles and chapters, and has written or edited the following books: 'My History, Not Yours: The Formation of Mexican American Autobiography,' 'The Short Stories of Fray Angelico Chavez, Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage,' 'Nuevomexicano Cultural Legacy: Forms, Agencies and Discourse,' and 'Power, Race, and Gender in Academe: Strangers in the Tower?'

Monday, March 9, 2009
12-1 pm
Heller Multicultural Lounge
205 Martin Luther King Jr. Student Union

Sponsored by the Student Learning Center Writing Program and the Department of English • For more information call 510.643.5737 or visit <http://slc.berkeley.edu/writing/othervoices.htm> • UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY • Wheelchair Accessible